THE MOVIE: SUMMARY

The following is a scene-by-scene comparison of the movie to the corresponding chapters in the book.

THE MOVIE: CHAPTER 1

OPENING SCENE: The surf washes in on the beach of a fishing village near Havana, Cuba around 1950. (ACCURATE) A narrator reads passages from the novel The Old Man and the Sea. Santiago is an old and expert fisherman who has been fishing in the Gulf Stream all his life. (ACCURATE) Everything about him is old except his eyes which are blue like the sea. (ACCURATE) The sail on the old man's skiff is patched with flour sacks like a symbol of permanent defeat. (ACCURATE)

Santiago has not caught a fish in 84 days. (ACCURATE) A boy named Manolin had been going to sea with him for the first 40 days. (ACCURATE) Santiago had taught the boy how to fish and the boy loved the old man. (ACCURATE) When the old man caught no fish Manolin's, father forced him to go on another boat because the old man had salao, meaning the worst kind of bad luck. (ACCURATE) The crew of Manolin's new boat caught three fish the first week. (ACCURATE)

Manolin still helps Santiago unload his boat at the end of the day. (ACCURATE) Santiago always takes the sail with him to protect it from the dew. (ACCURATE) No one would steal the rest of his gear which he leaves in the skiff. (ACCURATE) Before they go home to the old man's shack, Manolin asks Santiago if he can treat him to a beer at the Terrace restaurant. (ACCURATE) Manolin walks up to the bar and says "Two beers Martin, please." (ERROR: In the book Manolin does not say this to Martin, the restaurant owner) A young girl stands behind the bar. (ERROR: Not in the book)
